Vedrine to Start Today or Tomorrow -Garros First to Cross Line but Loses Lead-No Serious Accident.

Paris, May 26.—Profiting by the lessons of last week's catastrophe, when at the beginning of the Paris to Madrid race M. Berteaux, the minister of war, was killed and Premier Monis was badly injured, the organizers of the second great air contest, from Paris to Turin, sent the competitors away with record speed and precision to-

Not the slightest mishap marred the occasion. The new minister of war, General Goiron, Antoine Monis, son of the premier, who was slightly injured in the accident a week ago, the Italian ambassador, Signor Tittoni, and several high officials were allowed on the field, but were kept well behind the starting line. A large assemblage of starting line. A large assemblage of people were kept out of the danger zone by imposing lines of troops.

Vedrine Has Not Yet Started. Vedrine Has Not Yet Started.

Twelve out of 21 competitors were out for the start when the signal bomb was fired at 6 o'clock in the morning. The machines were sent off in rapid succession. They left within a few minutes of each other, and the entire number were away by 7 o'clock. The remaining nine entrants, including Pierre Vedrine, the Frenchman who won the Paris to Madrid race, will start tomorrow or Tuesday. Vedrine is now on his way back to Paris. He left Madrid for this city tonight.

Garres First to Start.

Garros First to Start. The first to cross the line today was Roland Garros, who, after making many plucky efforts to finish in the Paris to Madrid flight, was forced by a series of mishaps to abandon the race. Garros drove a monoplane. He was followed by Andre Beaumont, who rapidly overtook Garros and arrived first at Dijen, the initial recording station of the long journey. The two continued in the same order, reporting at Lyons and finally landing at Avignon. Spent the Night at Avignon.

They covered the 645 kilometres (401 mile from the aerodrome at Buc, a short distance outside the French capital, to Avignon, in twelve hours and 45 minutes and 13 hours and 35 minutes, respectively, and decided to spend the night there. They will gnish the remaining 220 killimeters of the first maining 220 killmetres of the first stage of the flight to Nice tomorrow morning, a total distance of 855 kilometres or 558 miles. Washington, May 28.—After a four years' contest the so-called "tobacco trust case" will probably be disposed of tomorrow by the supreme court of the United States. It will be the last day of the present term, and unless the case is reached then its decision will be postponed until next October

Many regard the case as the most complicated suit that has ever reached the supreme court a sa result of the Sherman anti-trust act. Instead of there being only one combination to be dealt with, as in the Standard Oil case, decided by the court two weeks ago, the lower court held that there were five unlawful combinations. These were the American Snuff company, the American Snuff company, the American Snuff company the the American Cigar company, the American Stegie company, and the McAndrews & Forbes company, the last named being concerned in the manufacture of licorice paste. These were restrained from engaging in interstate commerce.

In addition to these five combinations, the lower court found that there were seven coroporations which held stock in some thirty or forty other corporations which called for attention.

To Overthrow Madeto.

What is looked on by Francisco L.
Madero as a weak laid plan to prevent his reaching Mexico City, to overthrow his leadership and to start a counter revolution against him was revealed tonight in the arrest of Daniel De Villieres of Mexico City.

An American Arrested. According to a telegram received by ladero's chief military adviser, W. F. Dunn, an American, was arrested Monterey, Mexico, by a detective who had trailed him by El Pass.

Detectives Unearth the Plat. The alleged plot involves certain sums of money which were to have been paid out to Madero's military leaders. Madero was fully advised of the scheme and allowed it to be encouraged. A ten days' trailing by detectives then began.

Urged Villjoen to Desert Madero. The arrests followed what is believed to have been efforts by members of the Ciocentifico party to overfirm the Ciocentifico party to overfirm the last ten days, it is alleged, been attempting to influence General Benjamin Villjoen, an American officen, who is chief military adviser to Madoro and General Pascual Grossos to dero, and General Pascual Grosco to desert Madero's standard.

Led Conspirators On. Instead of yielding, the two chiefs have secretly encouraged the conspira-tors until evidence could be cellected to make the arrests. According to a telegram received tonight Dunn was arrested in Monterer today by order of Madero. Dunn left here three days ago with the alleged purpose of ob-taining funds for the Madero chiefs.
